

2008 Research Grant Awards

A Nationwide Exploration of the Recruitment and Training of Culturally Diverse School Counselors

Principal Researcher: Natalie Kosine, University of Louisville

Additional Researcher: Jennifer Murdock—Assistant Professor, University of Northern Colorado

Research Self-Efficacy and Research Mentoring Experiences as Predictors of Occupational Commitment or Occupational Withdrawal Cognitions in Counselor Education Doctoral Students

Glinda Rawls—Student, Western Michigan University

Being Present in Counseling: A Narrative Analysis

Tina Tannen, University of Florida

A Phenomenological Investigation of Supervisors' and Supervisees' Experiences with Attention to Cultural Issues in Supervision

Amy L. McLeod, Georgia State University

Women Counselor Educators: Factors that Contribute to Level of Job Satisfaction

Carrie Alexander-Albritton, Idaho State University

The Impact of Counselor Training on Students' Relationships with Their Children

Kirsten W. Murray, Indiana University of Pennsylvania

New Counselors' Experiences in Community Mental Health Centers: Preparation and Acculturation

Amy Freadling, Kent State University

Supervisee's Perceptions of Supervisor's Self-Disclosure

Melissa Niccole Freeburg, Idaho State University

Counselor Trainee Cognitive Style and Supervisor Supervisory Style: A national study of counselor trainees perceptions regarding supervisory effectiveness.

Mindy Heher, Duquesne University

21st Century School Counseling Supervision: Are We Addressing National Standards?

Principal Researcher: Dr. Rhonda Bryant, Albany State University

Additional Researchers: Dr. Delila Owens—Assistant Professor, Wayne State University; Dr. Angela Coker—Assistant Professor, University of Missouri-St. Louis

Spirituality in the Counselor Education Curriculum: The Intern's Experience

Principal Researcher: Robert A. Dobmeier, SUNY College at Brockport

Associate Researcher: Summer M. Reiner, SUNY College at Brockport